Is BRSR applicable to you yet?

An amendment with respect to Business Responsibility Reporting in SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements), 2015 introducing the Business Responsibility and Sustainability Reporting has impacted the top 1000 listed companies and their operations in various ways. This amendment is making the existing sustainability reporting to be more expansive and inclusive and adding more layers of record maintenance on the companies.

ESG parameters are very important factors that key stakeholders take into consideration today during their interactions with a company. We understand that MCA, through its BRSR report, has suggested extending the BRSR reporting mandate to unlisted companies as well which are not doing any kind of sustainability reporting currently. Thus, to help these Companies in knowing how they can gear up to meet the regulatory requirement, Lexplosion Solutions is hosting an Interactive Session on Business Responsibility and Sustainability Report – Future of Environmental, Social and Governance compliances in India where we will take insight from Industry experts to understand the impact of these Rules and the way forward...Watch the Video.
