CHAPTER II MINIMUM WAGES

3. Manner of calculating the minimum rate of wages. – (1) for the purposes of sub-section (5) of section 6, the minimum rate of wages shall be fixed on the day basis keeping in view the following criteria*, namely: -

- (i) The standard working-class family which includes a spouse and two children apart from the earning worker; an equivalent of three adult consumption units;
- (ii) A net intake of 2700 calories per day per consumption unit;
- (iii) 66 meters cloth per year per standard working class family;
- (iv) Housing rent expenditure to constitute 10 percent of food and clothing expenditure;
- (v) Fuel, electricity and other miscellaneous items of expenditure to constitute 20 percent of minimum wage; and
- (vi) Expenditure for children education, medical requirement, recreation and expenditure on contingencies to constitute 25 percent of minimum wage;

(2) when the rate of wages for a day is fixed, then, such amount shall be divided by eight for fixing the rate of wages for an hour and multiplied by twenty-six for fixing the rate of wages for a month and in such division and multiplication the factors of one-half and more than one-half shall be rounded as next figure and the factors less than one-half shall be ignored.

4. Norms for fixation of minimum rate of wages. - (1) While fixing the minimum rate of wages under section 6, the UT of Lakshadweep Administration shall fix minimum rate of wages which is applicable within the territorial limits of the UT of Lakshadweep Islands.

(2) The UT of Lakshadweep Administration shall constitute a technical committee for the purpose of advising the UT of Lakshadweep Administration in respect of skill categorization, which shall consist of the following members, namely: -

- (i) The Secretary (Labour, Employment & Training) UTLA -Chairperson;
- (ii) Director (Labour, Employment & Training) UTLA - Member;
- (iii) Assistant Director (Statistic) Dte. of PS&T, UTLA -Member
- (iv) Labour Enforcement Officer Dept. of LE & T, UTLA - Member;
- (v) The Mission Director (Skill Development), UTLA -Members;
- (vi) Junior Employment Officer Dept. of LE&T, UTLA -Member Secretary.

(3) The UT of Lakshadweep Administration shall, on the advice of the technical committee referred to in sub-rule (2), categorize the occupations of the employees into four categories that is to say unskilled, semi-skilled, skilled and highly skilled by modifying, deleting or adding any entry in the categorization of such occupations specified in Schedule-A.

(4) The technical committee referred in sub-rule (2) shall while advising the UT of Lakshadweep Administration under sub-rule (3) take into account, to the possible extent, the national classification of occupation or national skills qualification frame work or other similar frame work for the time being formulated to identify occupations.

(5) If an employee employed in any scheduled employment is not specifically mentioned by the name of its trade or job under any of the categories/classes in this notification or in earlier notifications fixing or revising minimum rate of wages, even then such employee shall be paid minimum wages of the category of the class where he can be most accurately placed. In case of disagreement about a category or classification of an occupation as mentioned in Schedule A, the decision of the technical committee as mentioned in the sub rule 2 of this Rule shall be final.

(6) In case of employees employed in occupation such as hotels, restaurants, tea-stalls, halwais, ahatas attached to wine and liquor shops, ahatas attached to beverages shops except soft drinks and carbonated water and employment in house as a domestic worker, , if they are provided two meals, two times tea and lodging, they will get an amount less than the minimum wages fixed for their categories and if they get two meals and two times tea without lodging they will get an amount less than other employees in their category who are not getting meals, tea and lodging.

5. Time Interval for revision of dearness allowance. -Endeavour shall be made so that the cost-of-living allowance and the cash value of the concession in respect of essential commodities at concession rate shall be computed once before 1st April and then before 1st October in every year to revise the dearness allowance payable to the employees on the minimum wages.

6. Number of hours of work which shall constitute a normal working day. — (1)

The normal working day under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 13 shall be comprised of eight hours of work and one or more intervals of rest which in total shall not exceed one hour.

(2) The working day of an employee shall be so arranged that inclusive of the intervals of rest, if any, it shall not spread over more than twelve hours on any day.

(3) The provisions of sub-rules (1) and (2) shall, in the case of an employee employed in agricultural employment, be subject to such modifications as may, from time to time, be determined by the Government.

(4) Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to affect the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948 (63 of 1948).

7. Weekly day of rest. — (1) Subject to the provisions of this rule, an employee shall be allowed a day of rest every week (hereinafter referred to as “the rest day”) which shall ordinarily be Sunday, but the employer may fix any other day of the week as the rest day for any employee or class of employees:

Provided that an employee shall be entitled for the rest day under this sub-rule if he has worked under the same employer for a continuous period of not less than six days:

Provided further that the employee shall be informed of the day fixed as the rest day and of any subsequent change in the rest day before the change is effected, by display of a notice to that effect in the place of employment at the place specified by the Inspector-cum-Facilitator in this behalf.

Explanation. -For the purpose of computation of the continuous period of not less than six days specified in the first provision to this sub-rule, any day on which an employee is required to attend for work but is given only an allowance for attendance and is not provided with work, a day on which an employee is laid off on payment of compensation under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act No. 14 of 1947), and any leave or holiday, with or without pay, granted by the employer to an employee in the period of six days immediately preceding the rest day, shall be deemed to be the days on which the employee has worked.

(2) Any such employee shall not be required or allowed to work on the rest day unless he has or will have a substituted rest day for a whole day on one of the five days immediately before or after the rest day:

Provided that no substitution shall be made which will result in the employee working for more than ten days consecutively without a rest day for a whole day.

(3) Where in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this rule, any employee works on a rest day and has been given a substituted rest day on any one of the five days before or after the rest day, the rest day shall, for the purpose of calculating the weekly hours of work, be included in the week in which the substituted rest day occurs.

- (4) An employee shall be granted-
- (a) for rest day wages calculated at the rate applicable to the next preceding day; and
  - (b) where he works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid wages for the rest day on which he worked, at the overtime rate and wages for the substituted rest day at the rate applicable to the next preceding day:

Provided that where-

- (i) the minimum rate of wages of the employee as notified under the Code has been worked out by dividing the minimum monthly rate of wages by twenty- six; or
- (ii) the actual daily rate of wages of the employee has been worked out by dividing the monthly rate of wages by twenty-six and such actual daily rate of wages is not less than the notified minimum daily rate of wages of the employee, then, no wages for the rest day shall be payable; and
- (iii) the employee works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid, only for the rest day on which he worked, an amount equal to the wages payable to him at the overtime rate;and, if any dispute arises whether the daily rate of wages has been worked out in accordance with the provisions of this proviso, the Labour Commissioner, UT of Lakshadweep may, on application made to him in this behalf, decide the same, after giving an opportunity to the parties concerned to make written representations.

Provided further that in case of an employee governed by a piece-rate system, the wages for the rest day, or the substituted rest day, as the case may be, shall be such as the UT of Lakshadweep Administration may, from time to time determine having regard to the minimum rate of wages fixed under the Code, in respect of the employment.

Explanation. -In this sub-rule 'next preceding day' means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day or the substituted rest day, as the case may be; and where the substituted rest day falls on a day immediately after the rest day, the next preceding day means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day.

- (5) The provisions of this rule shall not operate to the prejudice of more favourable terms, if any, to which an employee may be, entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement or contract of service, and in such a case, the employee shall be entitled only to more favourable terms aforesaid.

Explanation. – For the purposes of this rule, 'week' shall mean a period of seven days beginning at midnight on Saturday night.

8. Night shifts. —Where an employee in an employment works on a shift which extends beyond midnight, then, -

- a. a rest day for the whole of the purposes of rule 7 shall, in this case means a period of twenty- four consecutive hours beginning from the time when his shift ends; and

- b. the following day in such a case shall be deemed to be the period of twenty-four hours beginning from the time when such shift ends, and the hours after midnight during which such employee was engaged in work shall be counted towards the previous day.

9. The extent and conditions for the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 13.-In case of employees-

- a. Engaged in any emergency which could not have been foreseen or prevented;
- b. engaged in work of the nature of preparatory or complementary work which must necessarily be carried on outside the limits laid down for the general working in the employment concerned;
- c. whose employment is essentially intermittent;
- d. engaged in any work which for technical reasons has to be completed before the duty is over; and engaged in a work which could not be carried on except at times dependent on the irregular action of natural forces; the provisions of rules 6, 7 and 8 shall apply subject to the condition that –
  - (i) the spread over of the hours of work of the employee shall not exceed 16 hours in any day; and
  - (ii) the actual hours of work excluding the intervals of rest and the periods of inaction during which the employee may be on duty but is not called upon to display either physical activity or sustained attendance shall not exceed 9 hours in any day.
